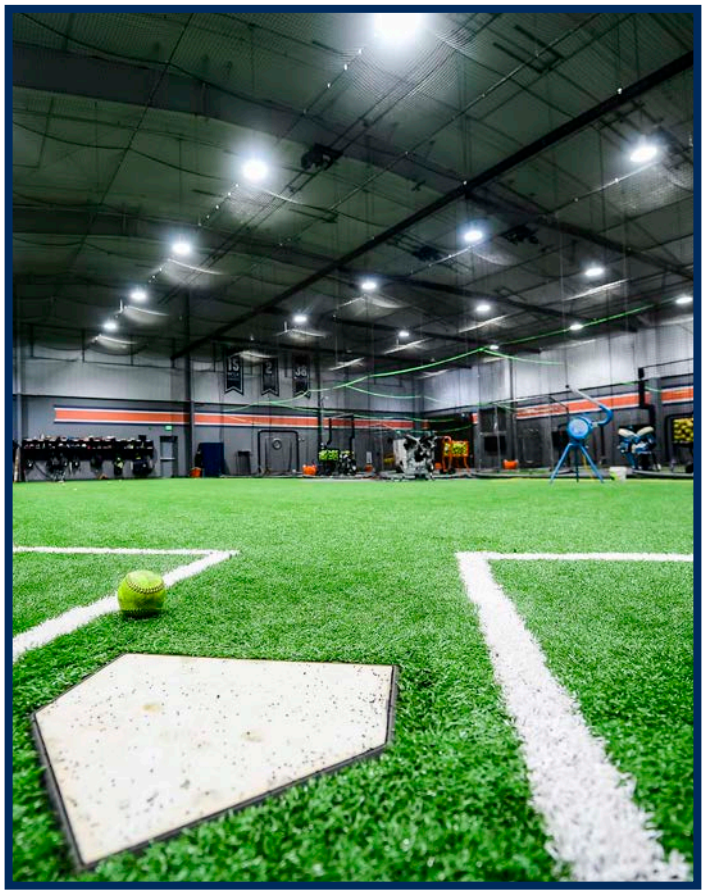
HEIM PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

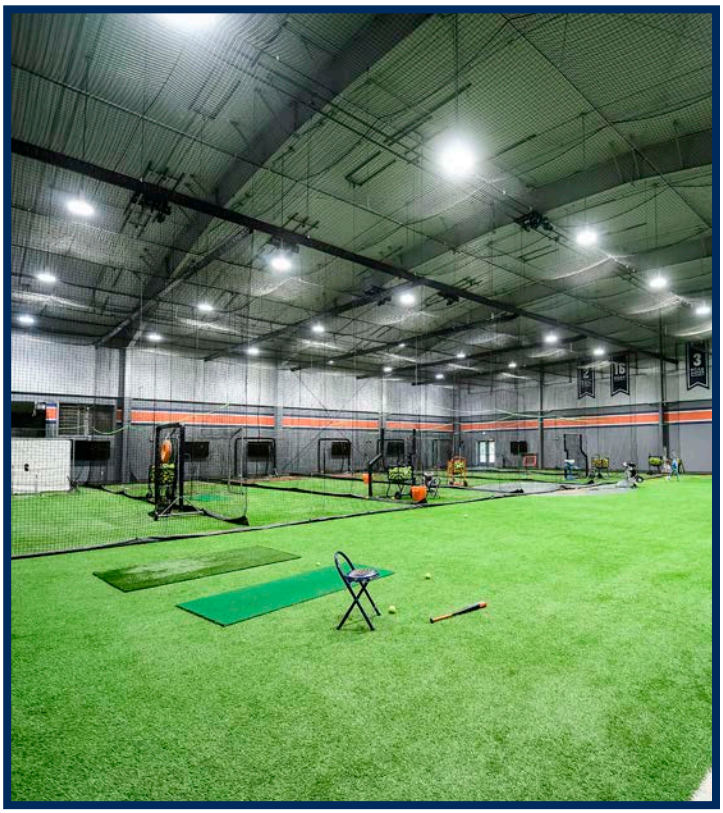
The Gregg E. Heim Player Development Center opened in the fall of 2020. The 11,000-square foot facility is complete with six batting tunnels, a netting system, a team meeting space, pitching machines, LED lighting and a clay pitching circle.

A full turf infield can be accessed by lifting the netting system, allowing for defensive practices in the event of inclement weather preventing field usage.

Each batting cage is equipped with televisions on a time-delay, allowing student-athletes to review film in real time.

The Heim Player Development Center is located adjacent to Jane B. Moore Field down the first-base line.





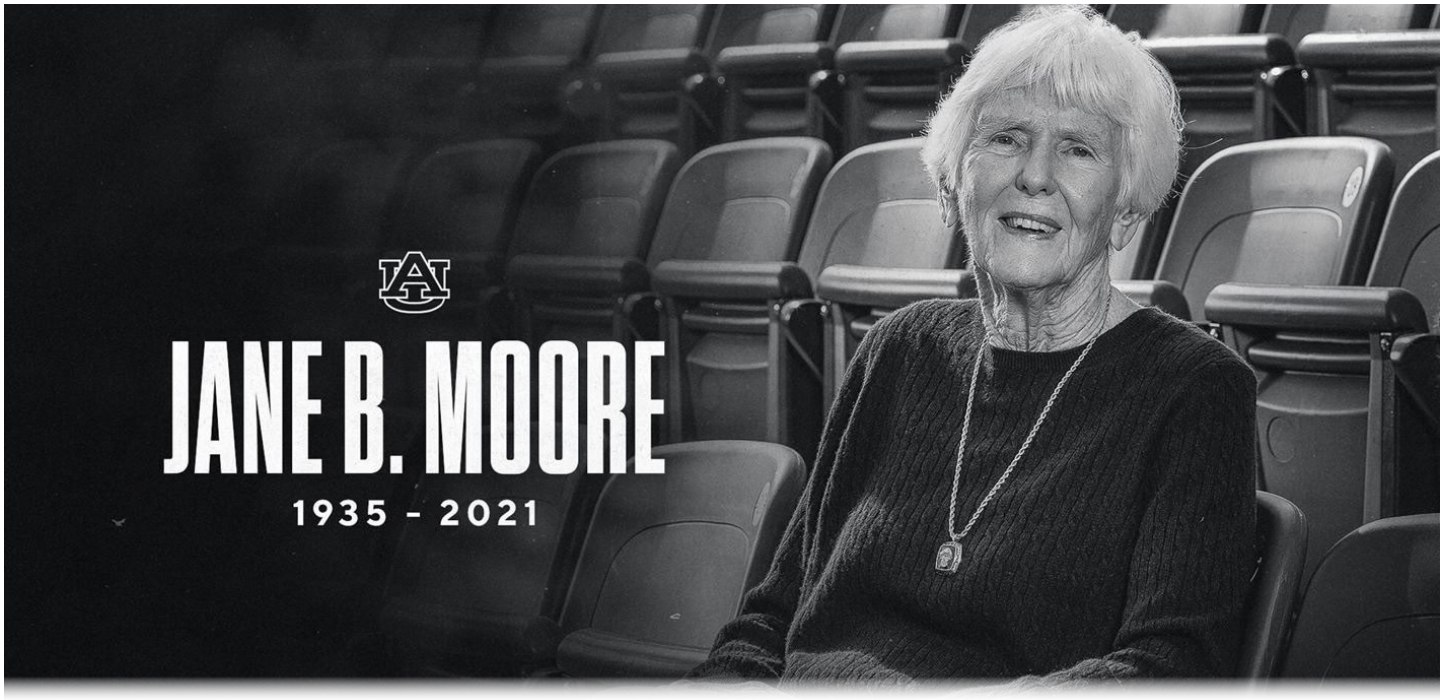
Gregg Heim graduated from Auburn University in 1965 in business administration. He served in the Army Reserve and enjoyed a distinguished insurance career for Liberty National. He loved Auburn, and when he passed away in 2019, his seven-figure estate gift, along with donations from other softball supporters, funded the facility that bears Heim's name.

MCWHORTER CENTER

The McWhorter Center for Women's Athletics officially opened its doors in January of 2001. The 44,000 square-foot building is home to the Auburn University gymnastics team and softball team.

A large portion of the building functions as the permanent practice facility for Auburn gymnastics. The center also includes locker rooms and offices for the coaching staffs of both programs as well as training room and equipment spaces.

In the summer of 2023, the McWhorter Center underwent renovations that included brand new locker rooms, featuring individual lockers and vanities for every student-athlete, new training and equipment rooms, updates to the main lobby and coaches' offices and replacement of essential building systems. The $4.9 million dollar project was completed in January of 2024.



Dr. Jane B. Moore, perhaps the most influential woman in Auburn Athletics history, passed away on June 9, 2021.

Auburn's softball complex was named Jane B. Moore Field in her honor in 2002 and dedicated on April 26, 2003, in recognition of Moore's service to athletics at Auburn.

"For more than 50 years, Dr. Jane Moore made an indelible impact on Auburn University and Auburn Athletics," said former director of athletics Allen Greene. "She believed in the human touch, a quality she consistently demonstrated to student-athletes, who have benefited profoundly from her example."

Moore continued to regularly attend events and support Auburn student-athletes until her passing.

"No one loved Auburn, Auburn University, the Auburn way of life, more so than Jane Moore," said former director of athletics David Housel. "You can easily say, and should say, that Jane Moore is the moral standard by which Auburn's women's athletics program is judged."

Born in 1935 in Dozier, Alabama, Moore came to Auburn in 1969 after earning her Doctorate of Education in physical education from the University of Alabama.

In 1975, Moore became the first woman to serve on the Auburn University Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics. She served on multiple athletics committees for men's and women's sports for more than 40 years.

"That put me in a position to have an opportunity to help the program all the way through," Moore recalled in a 2016 video when she received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Auburn Alumni Association. "That was a defining moment."

"In my 40 years of being around intercollegiate athletics, I don't know of anyone who was respected more than Jane Moore," Housel said.

Moore made significant professional contributions to Auburn University over a 28-year career on the faculty of the College of Education and the Department of Health and Human Performance (now the School of Kinesiology).

A pioneering researcher in motor development, Moore established the Kindergarten Motor Development Program in conjunction with the Auburn College of Education and Auburn City School System, making scholarly contributions to advance the understanding about how children move and learn to move. This venture was a one-of-a-kind testing and remediation program for young children who were participating in their early motor skills and provided practical experience for Auburn University students enrolled in Moore's classes.

"Jane B. Moore was a special person in the lives of the Auburn softball athletes," said Tina Deese, the Auburn program's first softball coach. "She was a mentor to me as a young coach and as a person. I so appreciate her guidance through the early years of the softball program. She will surely be missed by friends and athletes."

Moore consistently volunteered and provided leadership at the Food Bank of East Alabama, East Alabama Medical Center, Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Lee County and the Alabama School of Fine Arts, among many other civic pursuits.

Her service to Auburn has been recognized with the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award and the Pamela Wells Sheffield Award, which recognizes Auburn women exemplifying grace, character and a selfless service and commitment to Auburn University and the Auburn family.

"Dr. Jane Moore was a beloved professional colleague, good friend, an outstanding teacher, a lifelong leader in the College of Education and School of Kinesiology and a mainstay in Auburn Athletics," said Susan Nunnelly, Auburn women's athletics pioneer and retired faculty member. "She may have earned a degree from that 'other university' but she was a true Auburn woman and proud to be an Auburn Tiger. There was no doubt Jane believed in Auburn and loved it."

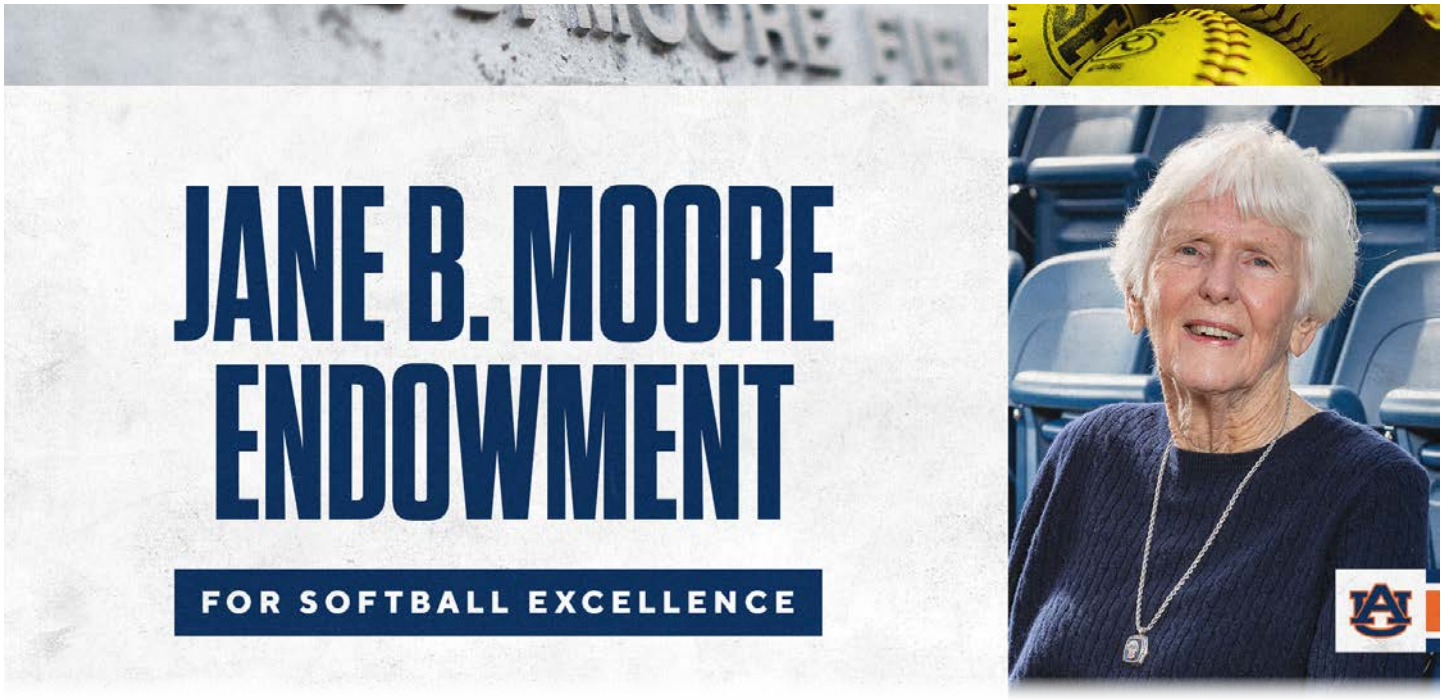
Moore was instrumental in the establishment of WINGS (Women Inspiring and Nurturing Greatness in Student-Athletes), which promotes and supports women's athletics at Auburn by creating programs for female student-athletes.

"Dr. Moore was an incredible woman who impacted so many lives," said the late Meredith Jenkins, former Auburn senior woman administrator. "She gave so much of herself in support of Auburn Athletics. The program would not be what it is today without her. She loved the coaches and student-athletes and was extremely proud of their accomplishments. She was a wonderful mentor and friend. She will be deeply missed."

"She was a wonderful woman who impacted so many student-athletes," said former Auburn softball All-American Holly Currie. "She was so genuine and made us feel like she was so proud of us and our accomplishments. I am truly thankful to have known her and will forever be grateful for my time at Auburn and playing at Jane B. Moore Field."

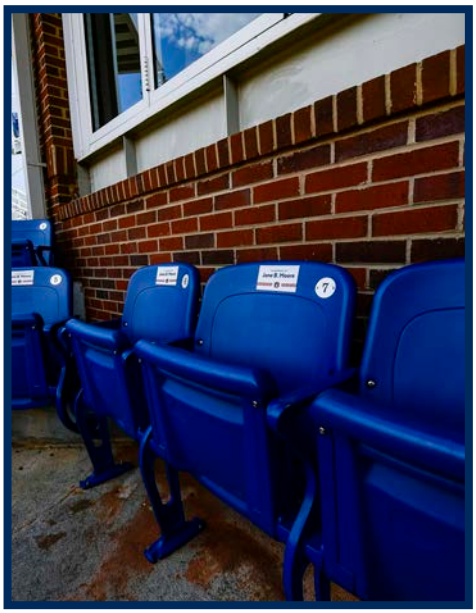
Always putting others and Auburn first and never seeking personal accolades, Moore accepted the Lifetime Achievement Award in 2016 with characteristic humility.

"I think about doing the best I can in whatever role and responsibility I have," she said. "I look back at the accomplishments not related to what I might have given to the program, but look back with pride about where we are and the giant steps that have been made through the years."



An endowment supporting Auburn Softball and honoring venue namesake Dr. Jane B. Moore was launched during the 2022 season with an initial $25,000 gift from Tigers Unlimited through the On Deck Club.

The mission of the On Deck Club is to foster, develop and promote Auburn Softball to the general public and provide financial support to the program through annual membership dues. The Jane B. Moore Endowment for Softball Excellence will be used to further enhance the Auburn Softball program through annual strategic initiatives.



The endowment is being created to honor the late Dr. Jane B. Moore, one of the most influential women in Auburn Athletics history.

Auburn's softball complex was named Jane B. Moore Field in her honor in 2002 and dedicated on April 26, 2003, in recognition of Moore's service to athletics at Auburn.

In 1975, Moore became the first woman to serve on the Auburn University Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics. She served on multiple athletics committees for men's and women's sports for more than 40 years.

Moore made significant professional contributions to Auburn University over a 28-year career on the faculty of the College of Education and the Department of Health and Human Performance (now the School of Kinesiology).

Her service to Auburn has been recognized with the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award and the Pamela Wells Sheffield Award, which recognizes Auburn women exemplifying grace, character and a selfless service and commitment to Auburn University and the Auburn family.

After initially launching the fund during the program's inaugural Jane B. Moore Memorial tournament in 2022, the Tigers are set to host the fourth edition of the event over the weekend of Feb. 28 to March 2, welcoming Rutgers, McNeese State and Louisiana to the Plains. The Tigers have held the tournament annually in her honor every season since.

Chris Malveaux (mal-VO) enters his second season as co-head coach of Auburn softball alongside his wife, Kate. The pair took over the helm of the program on June 5, 2024. Chris primarily runs Auburn's offense.

In the first year of the Malveaux era, Auburn softball earned 35 victories and earned its 11th consecutive NCAA Regional selection. Chris and Kate Malveaux have coached one First Team All-SEC honoree and three National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region selections in their short time on the Plains.

The Tigers opened the Malveaux era with a 20-1 start, their best since 2022. The span saw Auburn post a 6-0 record at the elite Shriners Children's Clearwater Invitational becoming the first team to do so since Florida State in 2019. Auburn finished the season with a 35-24 record, which included winning three of its final four SEC series. The Tigers earned their first series win in Kentucky since 2016 while also upsetting No. 18 Georgia and No. 13 South Carolina for series victories.

With its appearance at the 2025 Tallahassee Regional, Auburn extended its streak of consecutive NCAA postseason appearances to 11. The Tigers delivered (5) Florida State an 8-3 loss on Sunday to force the "if necessary" contest but was one win shy of advancing to Super Regionals in the first year of the Malveaux era.

Playing the fifth toughest schedule in the country, Auburn earned 18 victories against teams in the top 50 of the RPI.

The 2025 season was highlighted by a breakout offensive season from freshman AnnaLea Adams. Adams became the first Auburn freshman to ever win All-SEC First Team honors. The first baseman/designated player was also top-25 finalist for NFCA National Freshman of the Year. She joined Nelia Peralta and SJ Geurin as three Tigers selected to 2025 NFCA All-Gulf Region teams. Auburn's three selections in 2025 were the most since 2017.

Offensively, Auburn saw gains in essentially every statistical category in the first year of the Malveaux era, which included a 60-point jump in slugging percentage. Auburn slugged 68 home runs in 2025. It was the most hit by the team since 2022 and finished tied for the fifth most hit in a single season at Auburn. Five different Tigers hit at least 10 home runs in 2025, which was the most in a season since 2015. Eight different Tigers either matched or surpassed their career high for home runs in a season in Malveaux's first year. After only scoring 10 or more runs in two games in 2024, Auburn hit double-digit scoring nine times in year one of the Malveaux era. Auburn finished eighth in the SEC and 34th in the country in total home runs in its first season under Malveaux.

Bursting onto the scene, Adams finished in the top five in six different freshman offensive records. She finished 15th in the SEC in batting average and became just the fourth freshman in program history to slugged 10 or more home runs in a season. She wrapped her freshman campaign with Second Team Freshman All-America honors from D1 Softball.

Peralta thrived in her final season on the Plains under Malveaux's tutelage, setting career highs in batting average, runs scored and hits in a season. She also slugged double-digit home runs for the first time since her 2021 freshman season. Peralta became just the sixth Tiger in program history to knock 190+ hits, score 120+ runs and record 120+ RBI in an Auburn uniform. She ended her Auburn career ranked in the top 10 in eight Auburn career categories, including walks, triples, RBI, runs scored and on-base percentage.

On May 5, 2025, Malveaux was named to the U.S. Women's National Team Coaching Pool for the 2025-2028 quad. As part of the pool, Malveaux will help guide the team at WNT Camps and international events.

Both Chris and Kate Malveaux came to Auburn after serving as assistant coaches at the University of Tennessee where they helped the Lady Volunteer program to back-to-back Southeastern Conference regular season titles in 2023 and 2024 and a Women's College World Series appearance in 2023.

Additionally, the two helped Tennessee to 136 wins over the last three seasons, which was tied for the 10th most wins nationally and second most by an SEC team. In 2024, Tennessee not only won the SEC regular season title, but posted a 44-12 overall record and made an NCAA Super Regional appearance.

Recognized as one of the top offensive minds in collegiate softball, Chris Malveaux guided six Lady Vols to All-SEC accolades in 2024, including a third straight All-SEC First Team selection for McKenna Gibson. He helped All-American KiKi Milloy rewrite Tennessee's record book to become the program leader in home runs, runs scored and total bases. Three of Tennessee's top five single-season home run totals came under Malveaux.

Returning one of the most powerful lineups in the SEC, Tennessee led the league and ranked sixth nationally with 1.50 home runs per game average in 2024 and closed the season with 84 total, the third most in a single season on Rocky Top.

Returning for a fifth year, KiKi Milloy earned Second Team All-America honors from D1 Softball. Tennessee's all-time leader in home runs (69), runs scored (266) and total bases (534), Milloy started in 53 games in her final season at Tennessee. A mainstay at the top of the lineup, she led the Lady Vols with a .347 batting average and 64 runs scored.

Milloy tied for the team lead in hits (59) and home runs (13), while leading the squad with 12 doubles and two triples. Milloy closed out the year with 24 stolen bases as she finished with 142 for her career – the second-most in Tennessee softball history.

The Lady Vols' offense was potent in 2023 as they averaged 6.87 runs per game – ranking best in the SEC and third nationally. Tennessee pushed across 419 runs during the season - marking the first time UT broke 400 since scoring 426 in 2016. The Lady Vols scored 10+ runs 16 times in 2023 and pushed across five or more runs on 40 occasions.

Senior Milloy set a single-season school record for home runs with 25 – a mark that also led the nation. Sophomore Gibson had a breakout season as she set career bests in average (.362), OPS (1.232), runs (36), hits (59), doubles (11), home runs (15), RBIs (60), slugging (.718), walks (39) and on-base percentage (.514). She also recorded multiple RBIs in 14 games and ended the season on a 23-game reached base streak.

Under Malveaux's leadership, Milloy earned NFCA First Team All-America honors, while Gibson took home second team accolades.

In its first year under his guidance, Tennessee boasted the SEC's third-best scoring offense with 140 runs in conference games. The Lady Vols also ranked second in the league in doubles (39), slugging percentage (.540), on-base percentage (.398), and stolen bases (22) in SEC action while finishing third in home runs (38).

The 2023 team won the SEC regular-season and tournament titles – sweeping both crowns in the same season for the first time in program history. Tennessee secured its first 50-win season and reached the national semifinals at the Women's College World Series for the first time since 2013. The trip to the WCWS was its first since 2015 and its eighth all-time.

Tennessee posted remarkable home run numbers in its first season with Malveaux on staff, totaling 91 long balls for the second-highest single-season total in program history. The Lady Vols averaged 1.54 homers per game, ranking third in the SEC and 12th in the country.

In its preseason list of top 10 assistant coaching hires during the 2021 off-season, Extra Inning Softball tabbed Malveaux's hiring as the No. 1 assistant coach addition in the country.

Malveaux, a Houston, Texas, native spent the 2019-21 seasons at Missouri with one year as an assistant coach and two years as an associate head coach. During his three seasons in Columbia, the Missouri offense improved each year – hitting .284 in 2019, .290 in the COVID shortened 2020 season and jumping up to .320 in 2021.

The Tigers' .320 batting average ranked second in the Southeastern Conference in 2021. The Mizzou squad finished the season with 91 home runs, 382 runs scored and 184 extra-base hits.

In 2019, Mizzou's Brooke Wilmes was named to the All-SEC First Team, as well as NFCA Second Team All-Southeast Region, in her first year under Malveaux. Freshman Jazmyn Rollin was a Top 25 finalist for the NFCA/Schutt Sports Freshman of the Year that same season.

Prior to joining Missouri, Malveaux was the video coordinator at Kansas in 2018 and served as the associate head coach at Louisiana from 2016-17 – it was his second stay with the Ragin' Cajuns as he was an assistant coach with ULL from 2009-11.

The 2010 Louisiana staff was selected as the NFCA South Region Coaching Staff of the Year after compiling a 45-18 record, making an NCAA Super Regional appearance and earning a No. 16 national ranking. In his five combined seasons at Louisiana, Malveaux was a member of five Sun Belt Conference and Tournament Championships, five NCAA Regionals and two NCAA Super Regional bids.

A 2001 graduate of Texas A&M, Malveaux served as an assistant coach at Bradley from 2012-15 and was the head coach at McNeese State from 2005-08 after being promoted from assistant coach, a title he held at McNeese from 2002-04.

Kate Malveaux (mal-VO) enters her second season as co-head coach of Auburn softball alongside her husband, Chris. The pair took over the helm of the program on June 5, 2024. Kate primarily works with the Auburn catchers and defensive as well as base runner.

In the first year of the Malveaux era, Auburn softball earned 35 victories and earned its 11th consecutive NCAA Regional selection. Chris and Kate Malveaux have coached one First Team All-SEC honoree and three National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region selections in their short time on the Plains.

The Tigers delivered (5) Florida State an 8-3 loss on Sunday to force the "if necessary" contest but was one win shy of advancing to Super Regionals in the first year of the Malveaux era.

Playing the fifth toughest schedule in the country, Auburn earned 18 victories against teams in the top 50 of the RPI.

The 2025 season was highlighted by a breakout offensive season from freshman AnnaLea Adams. Adams became the first Auburn freshman to ever win All-SEC First Team honors. The first baseman/designated player was also top-25 finalist for NFCA National Freshman of the Year. She joined Nelia Peralta and SJ Geurin as three Tigers selected to 2025 NFCA All-Gulf Region teams. Auburn's three selections in 2025 were the most since 2017.

Malveaux led the Tigers to a .966 fielding percentage in her first year on the Plains. The Tigers finished sixth in the SEC and 28th nationally with 27 double plays turned in 2025. Malveaux helped guide Peralta to career defensive numbers as she closed her Auburn career sixth in assists (330) and ninth in double plays turned (34) while catcher Aubrie Lisenby finished second in Auburn history with a .994 fielding percentage.

On the base paths, Auburn stole 50 bases in 2025 and ranked ninth in the SEC with a 1.00 stolen bases per game average. A pair of Tigers ranked in the top 15 in the SEC in total steals. Icess Tresvik led that way with 16 to rank 12th in the SEC while Abbey Smith followed close behind with 14 to finish 15th. The duo both finished in the top five in Auburn history in career stolen bases.

Chris and Kate Malveaux came to Auburn after serving as assistant coaches at the University of Tennessee where they helped the Lady Volunteer program to back-to-back Southeastern Conference regular season titles in 2023 and 2024 and a Women's College World Series appearance in 2023.

Additionally, the two helped Tennessee to 136 wins over the last three seasons, which tied for the 10th most wins nationally and second most by an SEC team. This past season, Tennessee not only won the SEC regular season title, but posted a 44-12 overall record and made an NCAA Super Regional appearance.

Kate Malveaux was on staff at Tennessee for three seasons after joining the program in June of 2021. She served as a volunteer assistant during the 2022 and 2023 campaigns before being elevated to a full-time assistant coach position ahead of the 2024 season. She primarily worked with the Lady Vols' catchers and base runners.

In her first full season as an assistant coach, Malveaux continued her work with base running and the Lady Vols catchers. Tennessee's catchers committed just two errors over the course of the 2024 season and threw out five base runners.

A first-year Lady Vol, Sophia Nugent earned All-SEC honors with her efforts behind the dish and at the plate. Nugent totaled 42 hits, including eight doubles and 11 home runs with 38 RBI. Starting 52 games, Nugent held a .933 fielding percentage and threw out four base runners.

For the third straight season, Tennessee finished in the top five in the SEC in stolen bases per game, as the Lady Vols averaged 0.96 per game. Tennessee finished fifth in the league with 54 total stolen bases.

Over her two seasons as a volunteer assistant, the Lady Vols won 92 games and in 2023 won the SEC regular-season and tournament titles – sweeping both crowns in the same season for the first time in program history.

In 2023, Tennessee secured its first 50-win season and reached the national semifinals at the Women's College World Series for the first time since 2013. The trip to the WCWS was its first since 2015 and its eighth all-time. Primarily focused on Tennessee's catchers, Malveaux helped Giulia Koutsoyanopulos transition from the outfield to playing behind the plate in 2023. Before coming to Knoxville, Koutsoyanopulos had never been a catcher but moved into the role and started 59 games for UT.

Also working with the base runners, the Lady Vols stole 50 bases in each of the past three seasons. Since Malveaux's arrival, Tennessee has ranked among the top five in the SEC in stolen bases per game. UT was second in 2022 with an average of 1.49, fourth in 2023 at 1.43 and fifth in 2024 at 0.96.

Malveaux—formerly Kate Singler—was a member of the Missouri softball staff for the 2020 and 2021 seasons as its director of operations.

A standout softball player at Bradley, Malveaux served as a volunteer assistant coach for the Braves in 2012. As a student-athlete, she was a Second Team All-Missouri Valley Conference selection and a First Team MVC Scholar-Athlete. She also earned First Team Capital One Academic All-District V honors as a senior.

In back-to-back years as a junior and senior, she led Bradley in RBIs, becoming just the fifth player in program history to do so.

COACHING HISTORY

2025-Pr.	Auburn - Assistant Coach
2021-23	Ole Miss - Assistant Coach
2017-20	LSU - Student Assistant Coach
2016	Georgia State College - Assistant Coach

Ryker Chason enters his second season as an assistant coach for Auburn softball. Co-head coaches Chris and Kate Malveaux announced Chason as part of their inaugural staff on June 10, 2024. Chason serves as the pitching coach for the Tigers.

The Tigers opened the 2025 season with a 20-1 start, their best since 2022. Auburn finished the season with a 35-24 record, which included winning three of its final four SEC series. With its appearance at the 2025 Tallahassee Regional, Auburn extended its streak of consecutive NCAA postseason appearances to 11.

Inheriting a pitching staff that was returning the least number of innings pitched among all 15 Southeastern Conference Team, Chason used his experience to guide the transfer SJ Geurin to a breakout season.

After tossing just 10 innings prior to the 2025 season, Chason helped Geurin to 2025 National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Gulf Region Second Team honors. Geurin was responsible for 27 of Auburn's 35 victories by either recording the win or the save. She finished fourth in the SEC and 18th in the country in total victories.

Geurin was just the 12th pitcher in Auburn history to record 20 or more wins in a season and finished the season tied for the seventh most by a Tiger pitcher in a single season with 23. She also finished tied for seventh for saves in a season (4). Geurin had not tossed a complete game in her career before tossing five in Auburn uniform. Three of those five complete games were shutouts.

Chason joins the Tigers after spending the last 10 months as director of pitching growth for OGX Softball in Romeoville, Illinois. The company specializes in using data and human performance science to develop individualized, science-backed programs to elevate softball training and performance.

Prior to his stop at OGX, Chason spent three seasons on staff at Ole Miss from 2021 to 2023, helping the Rebels' pitching staff to a 2.91 ERA in his final season.

The 2023 season also saw the Rebel pitching staff combine for nine shutouts. Ole Miss was anchored by sophomore hurler Catelyn Riley, who earned five ranked victories in the circle. Chason's staff also went 24.1 straight scoreless innings at the Ole Miss Classic in March of that season.

In his second season at Ole Miss, Chason helped Riley burst onto the scene with a team leading 12 wins, the second most by an Ole Miss freshman in program history. As a staff, Chason guided the Rebels to their first no-hitter since March 2014 as Savannah Diederich, Brooke Vestal and Landyn Bruce combined to stifle Tennessee State. Ole Miss also tallied 13 shutouts in 2022, tied for third in the SEC, and posted a 3.34 team ERA.

Chason's debut season in Oxford saw the Rebel staff hold opponents to three earned runs or less in 42 of 58 contests. The season saw two of the most notable pitching performances ever seen in Oxford, with Anna Borgen setting the school record with a streak of 35-straight scoreless innings and Diederich tying the school record with 15 strikeouts in a 3-0 victory over Indiana State.

Chason joined Ole Miss from fellow SEC program, LSU, where he spent four seasons as a student coach on the Tiger staff. Chason assisted LSU head coach Beth Torina with pitching charts and pitch calls. During his three completed seasons with LSU, Chason worked with seven NFCA All-Americans, including four at the pitcher position.

With Chason on staff, LSU put together a successful four-year run, racking up 157 total wins, including 39 in SEC play. The Tigers continued their success in postseason play, winning a NCAA Regional Championship and advancing to Super Regionals in all three completed seasons, including a trip to the 2017 Women's College World Series.

In addition to his work at LSU, Chason served as the pitching coach for the nationally renowned Georgia Impact Premier Club in Atlanta for four years, being responsible for scouting. With Chason at the helm of the pitching staff, Georgia Impact captured the 2018 PGF National Championship and finished as the PGF National Runner Up in 2019.

Prior to making the move to Baton Rouge, Chason was an assistant coach at South Georgia State College for the 2016 season. During his stint in Douglas, Georgia, Chason helped the Hawks to a program best runner-up finish in the conference tournament and was responsible for the organization and implementation of the program's camps.

Chason was also a premier athlete in men's fastpitch softball with the United States Junior Men's National Team. He twice competed for Team USA at the WBSC Junior Men's World Championship in 2014 and 2016.

A native of Grand Ridge, Florida, Chason holds a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from LSU.

COACHING HISTORY

2025-Pr.	Auburn - Assistant Coach
2024	Ole Miss - Assistant Coach
2023	Memphis - Assistant Coach
2022	Mississippi State - Volunteer Assistant
2020-21	Missouri - Graduate Assistant

DJ Sanders, one of the rising stars in collegiate coaching, enters her second season as an assistant coach for the Tigers. Co-head coaches Chris & Kate Malveaux announced her as part of their inaugural staff on June 16, 2024.

In her first season on the Plains, Sanders worked primarily with the Tiger outfield as well as assisting Chris Malveaux in running the Tiger offense.

The Tigers opened the season with a 20-1 start, their best since 2022. Auburn finished the season with a 35-24 record, winning three of its final four SEC series. With its appearance at the 2025 Tallahassee Regional, Auburn extended its streak of consecutive NCAA postseason appearances to 11.

With a veteran group of seniors, Sanders led the Tiger outfield to a .988 fielding percentage in her first season. Auburn recorded 15 outfield assists in 2025, the most in a season since 2015. Abbey Smith led the group with seven assists in centerfield, tied for the third most in a season by an Auburn outfielder and the most since 2010. Icess Tresvik added five outfield assists to bring her Auburn career to 14 to tie Branndi Melero for third in Auburn history.

Offensively, Auburn saw gains in essentially every statistical category in the first year of the Malveaux era, which included a 60-point jump in slugging percentage. Auburn slugged 68 home runs in 2025. It was the most hit by the team since 2022 and finished tied for the fifth most hit in a single season at Auburn. Five different Tigers hit at least 10 home runs in 2025, which was the most in a season since 2015.

Sanders joins Auburn after spending last season as an assistant coach at Ole Miss where she worked with the Rebel offense. Sanders also had coaching stints with Memphis, Mississippi State and Missouri while bringing a wealth of playing knowledge both at the collegiate and professional levels.

In her lone season with the Rebels, Sanders help Ole Miss to 31 wins and an eighth straight NCAA Regional appearance. She guided Aynslie Furbush to 2024 All-SEC honors as Furbush turned in the best offensive season of her career. She tallied 49 hits and finished second on the team with a .325 batting average while ranking 13th in the SEC with 44 RBI.

Furbush added NFCA All-South Region honors alongside Jalia Lassiter. A two-time NFCA All-Region selection, Lassiter finished second on the team with 61 hits in 2024 and was key to the Ole Miss offense with 34 runs scored and 29 RBI. Lassiter was just the fourth Rebel in program history to earn multiple all-region accolades.

Sanders joined Ole Miss after serving as an assistant coach at Memphis. At the helm of the offense, she worked primarily as the hitting coach and lead scouting of opposing pitchers. Sanders also worked with the outfielders in her one season with the Tigers.

Prior to her stop in Memphis, Sanders spent one season at Mississippi State and was part of the program's historic run to the NCAA Super Regional in 2022. She helped assist the Bulldog offense as a hitting instructor and led the scouting of opposing pitchers. With Sanders' guidance, Mississippi State broke the single-season record in home runs and turned in top-five marks in program history in both runs (312) and RBI (282).

Sanders got her start in coaching as a graduate assistant in 2020 at Missouri, helping the Tigers to a 61-24 record in her two seasons.

Collegiately, Sanders played her first three seasons as the starting shortstop at Louisiana. As a junior, Sanders led the NCAA in home runs (29), RBI (82) and slugging percentage (1.013) en route to earning NFCA First Team All-American honors and being named one of 10 finalists for the USA Softball National Player of the Year award.

She also played for the USA Softball Junior National Team at the World Cup of Softball and Junior Women's World Championships in 2015.

For her senior year, she transferred to Oregon and earned All-Pac-12 honors in 2018. In her lone season in Eugene, she helped lead the Ducks to a Pac-12 Championship while blasting 16 homers and collecting 51 RBI.

After graduation, Sanders was drafted No. 21 overall by the Chicago Bandits in the 2018 NPF Draft. She made her professional debut with NPF on June 16, 2018, and recorded her first career hit the next day. In her rookie season, Sanders batted .306 and ranked third on her squad in home runs.

Sanders also played professionally with Athletes Unlimited for four seasons. The Columbus, Mississippi, native totaled 987 points through seven games in 2023. She competed in the AUX exhibition season in 2022, totaling 808 points in eight games with a .500 batting average. The previous year she tallied 1,352 points and finished 15th overall in the league, slugging a pair of homers and collecting five RBI in 11 games. In the summer of 2020, Sanders finished 14th individually in the inaugural AU season with 1,520 points and batted .333 with four homers over 14 games.

GARRETT SIEMEK

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

SECOND SEASON AT AUBURN | 𝕏 @Garrett_Siemek3

Garrett Siemek enters his second season as director of softball operations at Auburn. Co-head coaches Chris & Kate Malveaux announced Siemek as a member of the staff on June 27, 2024.

In his first season on the Plains, Siemek played a crucial role in logistics and daily operations and helped the Tigers to a postseason appearance at the 2024 Tallahassee Regional.

Siemek joined the Tigers after serving as the director of operations for Duke softball for two seasons, helping the Blue Devils reach the 2024 Women's College World Series for the first time in program history.

In his role at Auburn, Siemek oversees the day-to-day responsibilities of the team, including travel, meals, recruiting and working alongside the external team to promote Auburn softball.

Prior to Duke, Siemek served as the director of operations for Lafayette's baseball program. In his role at Lafayette, Siemek oversaw all of the day-to-day responsibilities of the team, including travel, meals, recruiting and social media.

Prior to his time with Lafayette, Siemek spent three years at the National Club Baseball Association (NCBA) in Pittsburgh, Pa. Over his stint with the NCBA, Siemek worked in several roles, including as the director of baseball team development for all three years. In addition, Siemek served as the director of Division III operations for his first year, before moving up to Division II in a similar role for the remaining two years.

Siemek began his career as the director of baseball operations and assistant general manager for the Baltimore Redbirds, a collegiate summer league baseball team in the Cal Ripken Collegiate Baseball League in Baltimore, Md. Siemek handled scheduling, scoring, team travel and various day-to-day responsibilities of the team.

A 2017 graduate of the University of South Carolina in sport and entertainment management, Siemek was a club baseball player and coach in his four years in Columbia. Siemek was tasked with several responsibilities including coordinating team travel, on-campus recruiting and field set up.

SAVANNA PARKER
